HELP SAVE REDWOOD

Redwood Records, one of the first record companies devoted exclusively to wimin's music, is in financial trouble and needs to raise $300,000 by the end of the year. Redwood recording artists include Holly Near, Linda Tillery, Ronnie Gilbert, Ferron, Teresa Trull, Judy Small and many more. ## IN THE LIFE

The lesbian and gay TV series, In The Life, is not being shown on some PBS stations because of right wing protests. To register your opinion with the PBS stations call or write: Jennifer Lawson, Executive Vice President, National Programming and Promotions, PBS, 1320 Braddock Place, Alexandria, VA 22314, (703)-739-5000.

LESBIAN MOMS ON SCHOOLBREAK SPECIAL

ON Tuesday, Oct. 12, CBS' Schoolbreak Special featured a story about the prejudice a teenager faces at school when word spreads that his mother has a female lover. Apparently, half of the advertisers pulled out because of the controversial subject and some CBS stations refused to show it (Denver, of course). Producer Joseph Stern got the idea for the show after watching a lesbian couple on Barbara Walters' 20/20 in 1989. Before CBS would air the show, Stern had to prove that children raised in homosexual homes were not any more likely to grow up homosexual than heterosexual. Meredith Baxter, Judith Ivey, Joe Regalbuto and Charlie Robinson all had parts in the show and Stern said actors were calling him for parts. --info from USA TODAY--

A WOMON'S BEST DEFENSE

Is a subject of medical controversy created by Margie Profet. This maverick scientist contends that menstruation protects wimin against infection. According to Profet, a woman's period is not some incidental event in the reproductive process or just a sign of failed fertility. Instead, it is a mechanism that protects fertility by preventing sperm-borne bacteria from infecting the womb.

Profet says that by unquestioningly accepting the traditional view of menstruation, physicians have unwittingly sabotaged a woman's natural defenses with inappropriate medical treatments in cases of uterine infection. "Imagine consulting a cardiologist who didn't understand that the function of the heart was to pump blood? That was a fundamental question in the 1600's. The same is true today for women's reproductive systems." --TIME Oct. 4, 1993 p.72--

IS THE LESBIAN LIFESTYLE BETTER FOR WIMIN?

Physical and mental health studies from the American association for Marriage and Family Therapy show that single wimin report greater life satisfaction than married wimin, single men over 45 are more likely than married men to die within 10 years even if they live with someone but single wimin don't face the higher risk as long as they live with someone (like another woman?), men get physical and mental health benefits from any marriage but wimin benefit only from good marriages, and the reported happiness of young married wimin has declined since the 1970's.--info from USA TODAY--

NEWS NOTES

--A survey taken at the National Lesbian and Gay Journalist Association in Miami, showed that the broadcast newsroom was a good place for lesbians/gays to work. Also, revealed that 72% of news managers gave the news media high marks for coverage of lesbian/gay issues but only 35% of the lesbians and gays believed that. The lesbians and gays were critical of media coverage of the Washington march, the military debate about homosexuals and the initiatives to curb lesbian/gay rights. --info from USA TODAY--

--ON Thursday, Oct. 5th, Sari Zabsin became the first woman to work as the public address announcer for a National Hockey League team. She announces the games for the Red Wings at the Reunion Arena in Detroit. --info from Detroit Free Press--

--The immigration board of Canada granted political refugee status in June to an Ecuadorian woman who was the victim of domestic violence. Hopefully, this decision will be used to help other women who suffer sex discrimination or genital mutilation. --info from Ms--

--"Legally certified" same-sex partners may now transfer Delta Air Lines frequent flyer awards to one another. Couples can be registered as domestic partners in 14 US cities (New York, San Francisco, Seattle and Ann Arbor) --info from Ms--

--The Board of Regents at the University of Michigan is considering same-sex partner benefits for employees and allowing same-sex couples into their family housing units. --info from Detroit Free Press--

--The Univ. of New Jersey, Univ. of Massachusetts and Wesleyan Univ. all have separate dorms for lesbians and gays. At Michigan State, the Audre Lorde Co-op has a "feminist-based, sexual orientation friendly" theme but it is not part of the official University housing.

--The perky neighbor on the TV series Married...With Children, Amanda Bearse, came out on Monday, National Coming Out Day.

O.A. SUPPORTS COMMUNITY GROUPS

Due to our present financial stability (mostly thanks to our printer friend), we have decided to earmark $100 per year for donation to community groups. Part of our support for this year has gone to the following:

1) $39.30 for the purchase of 3 books (including that of local author/editor Patti Myers) to donate to Lavendar Rhythm as door prizes at the October dance (We're also donating a certificate for a free one year subscription to Open Arms for the raffle at the dance).

2) $12.00 to the Gay and Lesbian Students of Notre Dame/St. Mary's to underwrite the cost for two St. Mary's students to attend the GLSND/SMC Dinner Party in celebration of Coming Out Day.

3) $25.00 to Redwood Records, the company that made it possible to hear the music of Holly Near, Melanie DeMoore, Mary Watkins, Teresa Trull and others. See article elsewhere in this issue about Redwood's problems.

COMING OUT DAY DINNER PARTY

One of our staff was able to attend the GLSND/SMC Dinner Party in celebration of Coming Out Day. It was held in a N.D. professor's house in Granger and was catered by Marigold Market. About 50 people made it there through the downpour and enjoyed the food, conversation and general festivities. The majority of people who attended were from Notre Dame or St. Mary's but a few other community groups, including P-Flag, were represented. The campus group appears to be a vigorous healthy group despite lack of official recognition by the University. Thanks for the invitation, GLSND/SMC. It was a fun, though wet, night.

Homophobes

According to the Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund, the christian-right activists are getting their members elected to local school boards, political parties and other local governing committees. Their agenda is to : 1) forbid school districts from teaching tolerance of lesbian and gay people, 2) make it illegal for cities or states to adopt and enforce civil rights protections for lesbians and gays, 3) to force AIDS educators and AIDS education materials to make moral judgments condemning homosexuality and 4) to permanently institutionalize homophobia at the grassroots level, so that even Congress and the White House won't dare take them on.

It's a Gift to Be Simple

Each September fashion magazines philosophize on the look of the fall season in somewhat highfalutin editorials. This year the style manifestoes all say austerity is in—we wouldn't have guessed.

"What ties fall's looks together is a fresh aesthetic that's equal parts romantic and ascetic: Styles are streamlined, softly constructed, largely unadorned." —Vogue

nky Chic

"[A] fall icon is the monastic dress—long, chaste and as spare as a monk's humble quarters." —W

"A definite outline of what looks 'right'—wearable, rational, elegant—has become discernible.

The strength of fashion now is in its almost total plainness and simplicity.

—Harper's Bazaar

HERE COME DA JUDGE!

On Thursday, Sept. 30, Los Angeles District Court Judge Terry Hatter told the Pentagon that all the military branches could not: -discharge, change the enlistment status, or deny enlistment to any person based on sexual orientation in absence of proven sexual misconduct -create/maintain records/files on gay soldiers over their sexual status -take any action that "in any way affects (or) impedes" the duty/standing of homosexual soldiers. The ruling came one day before Clinton's "don't ask, don't tell" policy was to go into effect. Pentagon officials said that they would file and immediate appeal and ask for a stay. Hatter had summoned Pentagon officials to court Thursday on contempt charges over his earlier ruling that the military ban was unconstitutional and therefore, unenforceable. Hatter had threatened a fine of $10,000 per day if Pentagon officials did not appear in his court to answer why the ban was still in effect. --info from USA TODAY--

FOR OURSELVES

Wimin have generally been raised to be self-sacrificing. Looking to our own enrichment has been given little attention. In reading Zsuzsanna E. Budapest's "Goddess in the Office" in NEW AGE (Dec. '93), I found some very helpful suggestions for giving something positive to wimin, to our selves...kindness, gentleness, empowerment, and fun.

The following is the first of 4 parts I'll share in reviewing Z's article. It's entitled Daily Maintenance. (Sharings for months to come will be Scents, Color, and Spells.)

DAILY MAINTENANCE

DRINK....avoid coffee..try jasmine tea (antidepressant and aphrodisiac)

EAT....snacks are good (when your wild woman inside feels deprived, she'll eat even more)..try almonds, raisins, dates, apples, figs ..No diets, wimin are suppose to be all shapes and sizes. Yes I

SUGAR CRAVING....try honey and lick the spoon.....slowly

BREATHE....conscious deep breathing of fresh air to let go of negative build up..relax and image nest, earth, wilderness

LEAVE WORK BEHIND....try a bath when you get home to let your "wild woman" know she's home...try going outside, get physical.

Do not turn on T.V.

COMMUNE....spend time with friends..get hugs and kisses (Wild Woman likes to smooch.) Pets are big helpers with comfort.

INDULGE....try a lemon-scented bath before bed or Epsom salts and baking soda to relax your muscles.

SLEEP....try a dream pillow. Buy 1.5 pounds of artemesia vulgaris (mugwort) at herb shop, mix with heliotrope, jasmine, cinquefoil, marigold and/or rose petals. Open your pillow and mix herbs with down. Your dreams will be in full color, healing and prophetic. OR a cup of chamomile tea before bed will help you sleep. Do not use sleeping pills.

GENDER GAP IN RETIREMENT PLANNING

A Merrill Lynch survey of 1,100 people in January and February found that wimin start preparing for retirement later than men, at 40 only 46% of wimin had started saving money versus 67% of men. In addition, in the 45-64 age bracket, only 30% say they are saving for retirement versus 47% of men and the mean for wimin's investments and savings is $27,500 vs. $52,500 for men. Merrill Lynch suggests wimin be more assertive in learning about financial security and requesting information about their retirement benefits. Wimin also need to learn and use investing techniques such as diversification, investing regular amounts of money on a regular basis and using more tax-free investments.

A financial planning book written by a woman (whose only clients are wimin) for wimin is Money Smart It is written by Esther M. Berger and deals with all aspects of money management from a feminist perspective.
